WORSHIP THIS SUNDAY

Welcome to our Online Worship

Amazing Grace: your gift for all. So amazing your grace that you would die for us sinners on a cross in shame and agony though sinless yourself.

How Sweet the Sound: to hear "your sins are absolved"

That Saved a Wretch Like Me: Compared to your perfection and glory we are truly wretched. All blackened by sin, but because of your death on a cross not by water or blood, but by water and blood we are saved and washed clean and white. The only chance we have of getting into heaven is by your gift of Amazing Grace.

I Once Was Lost: like a sheep who strays from the flock and wanders off

But Now Am Found: I am safe and sound in your arms once again. You rescue me from danger and bring me back safe and sound.

Was Blind: because of sin and my faults, wrapped up in a blanket of hurting and lies.

But Now I See: the magnitude of this gift you give and because of your death, the pure spotless lamb, and the cleansing blood you shed for me and for many that sins might be forgiven.

'Twas Grace That Taught My Heart To Fear: fear you in a deep respect for your power, fear of not having you always there and fear of satan and the cost of sin.

And Grace My Fears Relieved: I used to fear what would happen if I sinned and I still fear as I should always, but I take comfort in the knowledge that when I sincerely repent, do my best to sin no more, and to avoid the things that lead me to sin I will be forgiven.

How Precious Did That Grace Appear: It is by Grace and Grace alone that we are saved and indeed how precious, how special Grace was as it appeared to me

The Hour I First Believed: The hour I came to believe in you Jesus my Saviour who shed your blood, died and rose again that I might live!

We often place important reminders on our walls or on our refrigerators or in front of our desks. They may be Bible verses or favourite quotations or an important motto. These reminders can tell us much about ourselves.

John Newton (1725-1807) had a reminder in front of the desk of his study. It came from Deuteronomy 15:15 and it said,

"You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you."

This tells us much about John Newton.

He was a former slave trader, but God was gracious to him, saving him from his sin. You can read his testimony in the much loved hymn, "Amazing Grace." John Newton never wanted to forget God's saving grace in his life.

Surely that's why Newton posted Deuteronomy 15:15 in a place where he would be reminded every day of God's redeeming work in his life.

For those members & friends of BCPC who can't take part using the internet we have the dial-in option so anyone can now hear Kevin's weekly message using their phone.

Just call 01698 533211 (local rate number). Please share this info with folks not online so they can take part in our worship. It is available anytime & every day throughout the week. It is updated on Sunday mornings.
