WORSHIP THIS SUNDAY

Welcome to our Online Worship

Today Kevin's message is God's Riches!

Join with Hollie and Hannah in today's introduction to our Online Service

Call to Worship (Psalm 23)

Come, walk in green pastures.

We follow the Shepherd.

Come, lie down in green pastures.

We trust the Shepherd.

Come, dine at the table of abundance.

We are fed by the Shepherd.

Come, dwell in God's house.

We live in the Shepherd's care.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all righteousness, we know how the apostle Paul counted himself as a righteous person when zealously carrying out the law as a Pharisee. He considered himself to be blameless, but counted all that as loss when he came to know Jesus as Lord and Saviour. From that time on, righteousness took on a new meaning. Paul knew that he no longer needed to perform exemplary deeds in order to earn your love. All he had to do was to accept your gracious and unconditional love. Forgive us, O God, when we believe that righteous behaviour is all that is needed to secure your love. We know that we can neither earn nor deserve all that you have done for us. Help us to surrender our worldly attitudes and values so that, like Paul, we can celebrate anew lives centred in Jesus Christ.

Paul acknowledges a desire to participate in the death and resurrection of Christ so that he can die and rise also. He urges others to do likewise. Forgive us, O God, when we lose sight of the goal of our lives as Christians—that of following Jesus; even when that means, and perhaps, especially when that means taking up our cross, and sharing in the suffering and struggle that Jesus shares with us.

Merciful God, in the agony of the crucifixion, we see the lengths you were prepared to go, to 'do great things for us'. Whatever gains we may have experienced in our lives, like Paul may we regard them as loss, compared to the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus as our Lord. This we pray in his name.
